The image shows a page of handwritten musical notation on a staff. The title 'Samba' is written at the top. Below it, there are three distinct rhythmic patterns labeled 'Feet', 'Ride', and 'SD'. Each pattern is written on a single staff line with various note values and stems. The 'Feet' pattern consists of two groups of notes, each enclosed in a box. The 'Ride' pattern is a single group of notes. The 'SD' pattern is a single group of notes. The page is otherwise blank with several empty staff lines.
